Supervisor Jacobs stated that Town Board meetings will re-open to the public on April 15, 2021, with limited capacity, and the meetings will continue to be streamed on Facebook Live.

At 6:51 PM, prior to the public participation portion of the meeting, Supervisor Jacobs called for a brief recess to post Zoom meeting information on Facebook for the public to access for comment.

At 6:56 PM, Supervisor Jacobs reconvened the meeting and re-read the statement that she shared at the opening of the meeting.

Five members of the public addressed the Town Board:

- 1. Charlie Caradonna addressed the Town Board regarding the assessment process,
- 2. Jerry Garsky inquired as to the financial drive and reasoning behind the revaluation and increase in the Town's assessments,

Comments and questions were read and addressed from residents who participated via Zoom and who posted on the Town's Facebook page concerning Facebook posts by the Town, requirements of the Assessor for revaluations, school taxes and the process in which to contest one's assessment.
