PERMISSIVE REFERENDUM NOTICE – LEASE AGREEMENT – WALWORTH
SERVICE AREA

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on July 17th, 2025, at a duly noticed and held meeting of the Walworth Town Board, the Walworth Town Board adopted a resolution approving a certain lease, said resolution providing, in sum, as follows:

That, after a public hearing on the same, the Walworth Town Board approved a lease agreement entitled, in short, “LEASE AGREEMENT-WALWORTH SERVICE AREA” (the “Lease”), which Lease, given the impending decommissioning of the Walworth treatment plant and transition to the Wayne County Water and Sewer Authority’s Regional Plant, will result in the Towns of Walworth and Macedon leasing their respective sewer systems, inclusive of Macedon’s Gananda Sewer District No. 1 and Walworth’s Walworth Sewer District No. 1, to the Wayne County Water and Sewer Authority, such that the Authority will conduct the day to day operation and maintenance, including billing, etc., of the sewer systems, and the Towns will be responsible for the cost of repairs in excess of a cost threshold which adjusts upward annually in accordance with CPI, with said Lease additionally specifying other details, including funding for repairs, addressing shared facilities via the Shared Sewer Facilities Agreement, etc.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT said resolution is subject to permissive referendum.

Dated July 18,2025
